On Friday, Finley will explore Thomas Merton’s spiritual teachings by drawing on his own experience of Merton as a spiritual director. On Saturday Dr. Finley will look at how our grounding in God’s Presence can help us become more tender-hearted and insightful as we experience the suffering in our world today and seek healing for ourselves and others.

James Finley, Ph.D. lived as a monk at the Trappist monastery of the Abbey of Gethsemani, where Thomas Merton was his spiritual director. He leads retreats and workshops throughout the United States and Canada, attracting men and women from all religious traditions who seek to live a contemplative way of life in the midst of today’s busy world. He is the author of Merton’s Palace of Nowhere; The Contemplative Heart; and Christian Meditation: Experiencing the Presence of God.
