

WHY MERTON STILL MATTERS

Student Reflections on the Life & Writings of Thomas Merton

Monday, April 8

5:00 to 6:30 p.m.

Theology and Ministry
Library Auditorium

Fruitcake and fudge made at
Merton's abbey will be served!

Featured Speakers and their Topics:

"Merton on Human
Nature and Becoming One's True Self"

Peter Vale,
Ph.D. '25

"Merton on Creation,
Ecology, and Nature"

Keighlee Arp,
M.T.S. '25

"Merton on Interfaith"

Rosys,
M.A.T.M '25

"Merton on Contemplative
Spirituality and Silence"

Ethan Strouse,
M.Div. '24

Photograph of Thomas Merton by Sibyle Akers. Used with Permission of the Merton Legacy Trust and the Thomas Merton Center at Bellarmine University.

Co-Sponsored by:

The Boston College Clough School of Theology and Ministry

The Church in the 21st Century Center

The Boston College Libraries

The Jesuit Institute

The Boisi Center for Religion & American Public Life