

THOMAS MERTON STUDIES CENTER AND THOMAS MERTON COLLECTION HAVE MOVED TO A NEW LOCATION ON CAMPUS

The Thomas Merton Collection, designated by Fr. Merton as repository for his papers and manuscripts in 1963 and continued as such by the Trustees of the Merton Legacy Trust after his death in 1968, moved to new quarters in Bonaventure Hall on campus in late August 1976. An integral part of the Thomas Merton Studies Center, it is a special collection administered separately from the library and other collections. Anyone wishing to use the facilities of the Collection or the Center should contact the Curator of the Thomas Merton Collection.

FLOOR PLAN OF THE THOMAS MERTON STUDIES CENTER

LOUISVILLE EVENTS SPONSORED BY THE THOMAS MERTON STUDIES CENTER

UPCOMING: (Free and open to the public)

LECTURE:

"A HISTORY OF JEWS SINCE THE FIRST CENTURY A.D."
Dr. Frederick Schweitzer, Chairman,
Department of History, Manhattan College

Sunday Evening, October 24, 7:30 p.m.
New Science Theater, Bellarmine College

This public lecture is part of a weekend invitational seminar co-sponsored by the Merton Center: "Catholic and Jewish Perspectives on Theology, History and Contemporary Concerns".

"FREEDOM AND VALUES"

Dr. Rollo May, author of Love and Will

LECTURE:

Monday Evening, November 15, 8:00 p.m.
Knight's Hall, Bellarmine College

"RELIGION: LOYAL CRITIC IN AMERICAN LIFE"

Dr. Talcott Parsons, Professor of Sociology,
Harvard University

LECTURE:

Wednesday Afternoon, November 10, 1:00 p.m.
Student Activities Bldg., Bellarmine College

VITAL VOICES:

"ENDING WELL" Dramatic Readings from
Teilhard de Chardin
Selected and Performed by the Vital Voices
Company of Bellarmine Students

Thursday, October 28, 11:00 a.m.
Bellarmine Chapel

CANDLELIGHT
CONCERT:

AN ADVENT CONCERT OF GREGORIAN CHANT
Performed by the Gregorian Choir of
St. Agnes Church

Cathedral of the Assumption
Sunday, December 5, 7:00 p.m.