Henri Nouwen

The Road to Peace

EDITED BY JOHN DEAR

256 pages / ISBN 1–57075–180–3 / hardcover $18.00

In this new book, John Dear has brought together the best of Nouwen's writing on social spirituality, amplifying his call to all of us to become true peacemakers. The Road to Peace includes previously unpublished material and Nouwen's thoughts on the legacies of Thomas Merton and Oscar Romero, the presence of Christ among the poor, his participation in the great civil rights march in Selma, and the lessons of the heart that he took from his experiences at L'Arche. The final chapters include his thoughts on what it means to be compassionate in the time of AIDS, and how all of us can be called to recognize our solidarity with the human family.

JOHN DEAR is a Jesuit priest and peace activist. His books include The God of Peace: Toward a Theology of Nonviolence and Apostle of Peace: Essays in Honor of Daniel Berrigan. He currently lives in Belfast, Northern Ireland.
